OBTAINING YOUR OWN CRIMINAL RECORD

For a copy of your own criminal record, this form must be notarized and mailed to our office with a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Please be advised that if you have requested a copy of your own criminal record for the purpose of employment, the most recent amendment to the C.O.R.I. law states that:

“...except as authorized by this chapter it shall be unlawful to request or require a person to provide a copy of his criminal offender record information (C.O.R.I.).”
(Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 6, Section 172)

In order for any person, governmental agency or business to access a person's criminal record , the must make application to this agency, be certified by the Criminal History Systems Board and have your written approval. The general public may request a person's criminal record under the public access law. This law allows conviction information on persons who have recently been involved with the criminal justice system following a conviction. This information is available to anyone, including an employer, without the consent of the person whose record is being obtained.

Your notarized form should include a self-addressed, stamped envelope and be mailed to:
